

Hendricks County Economic Development Partnership

Monday, May 18, 2020

Hendricks County Economic Development Partnership (HCEDP), a public/private non-profit Local Economic Development Organization, is seeking a full-time Executive Director. The Executive Director provides vision and leadership in planning, directing, managing, and overseeing economic development programs and projects within Hendricks County.

Hendricks County is the second fastest growing county in Indiana, located within the Metro Indianapolis area. Business expansions, job additions, and capital investments increase annually to enhance growth in a prudent manner. Hendricks County is home to many leading school corporations, hospital healthcare providers, and parks and recreation locations. Civic leaders, public officials, and the business community work together to make Hendricks County an enticing place to live and work; balancing continued growth while maintaining the core values of a small town.

The ideal candidate will be highly motivated, self-directed, and able to achieve the organization's goals with limited to no supervision. A demonstrated record of business attraction, business development, business retention, workforce development, marketing, and project financing is preferred.

This position will be responsible for the direction and management of HCEDP staff in an office environment. Requirements for the position include ability to travel, a bachelor's degree in a related field, and demonstrated experiences in economic development. Ability to work with elected officials, government staffs, and other community partnerships is also required. Economic development certifications, related course work, and 5 years of increasingly responsible professional experience is preferred.

HCEDP offers a competitive salary with benefits including insurance and a 401k matching program. Interested candidates should direct a letter of interest including a resume and salary requirements to:
